

Mental health support shouldn't end when the session does.

Many patients feel lost between therapy appointments. Without consistent guidance, it's hard to reflect, stay motivated, or stay on track with care plans.

