

Lucky Gold Ball and Lucky Pink Ball

———— Lucky Gold Ball and Lucky Pink Ball ————

Spirit of Legacy and Essence of the Times

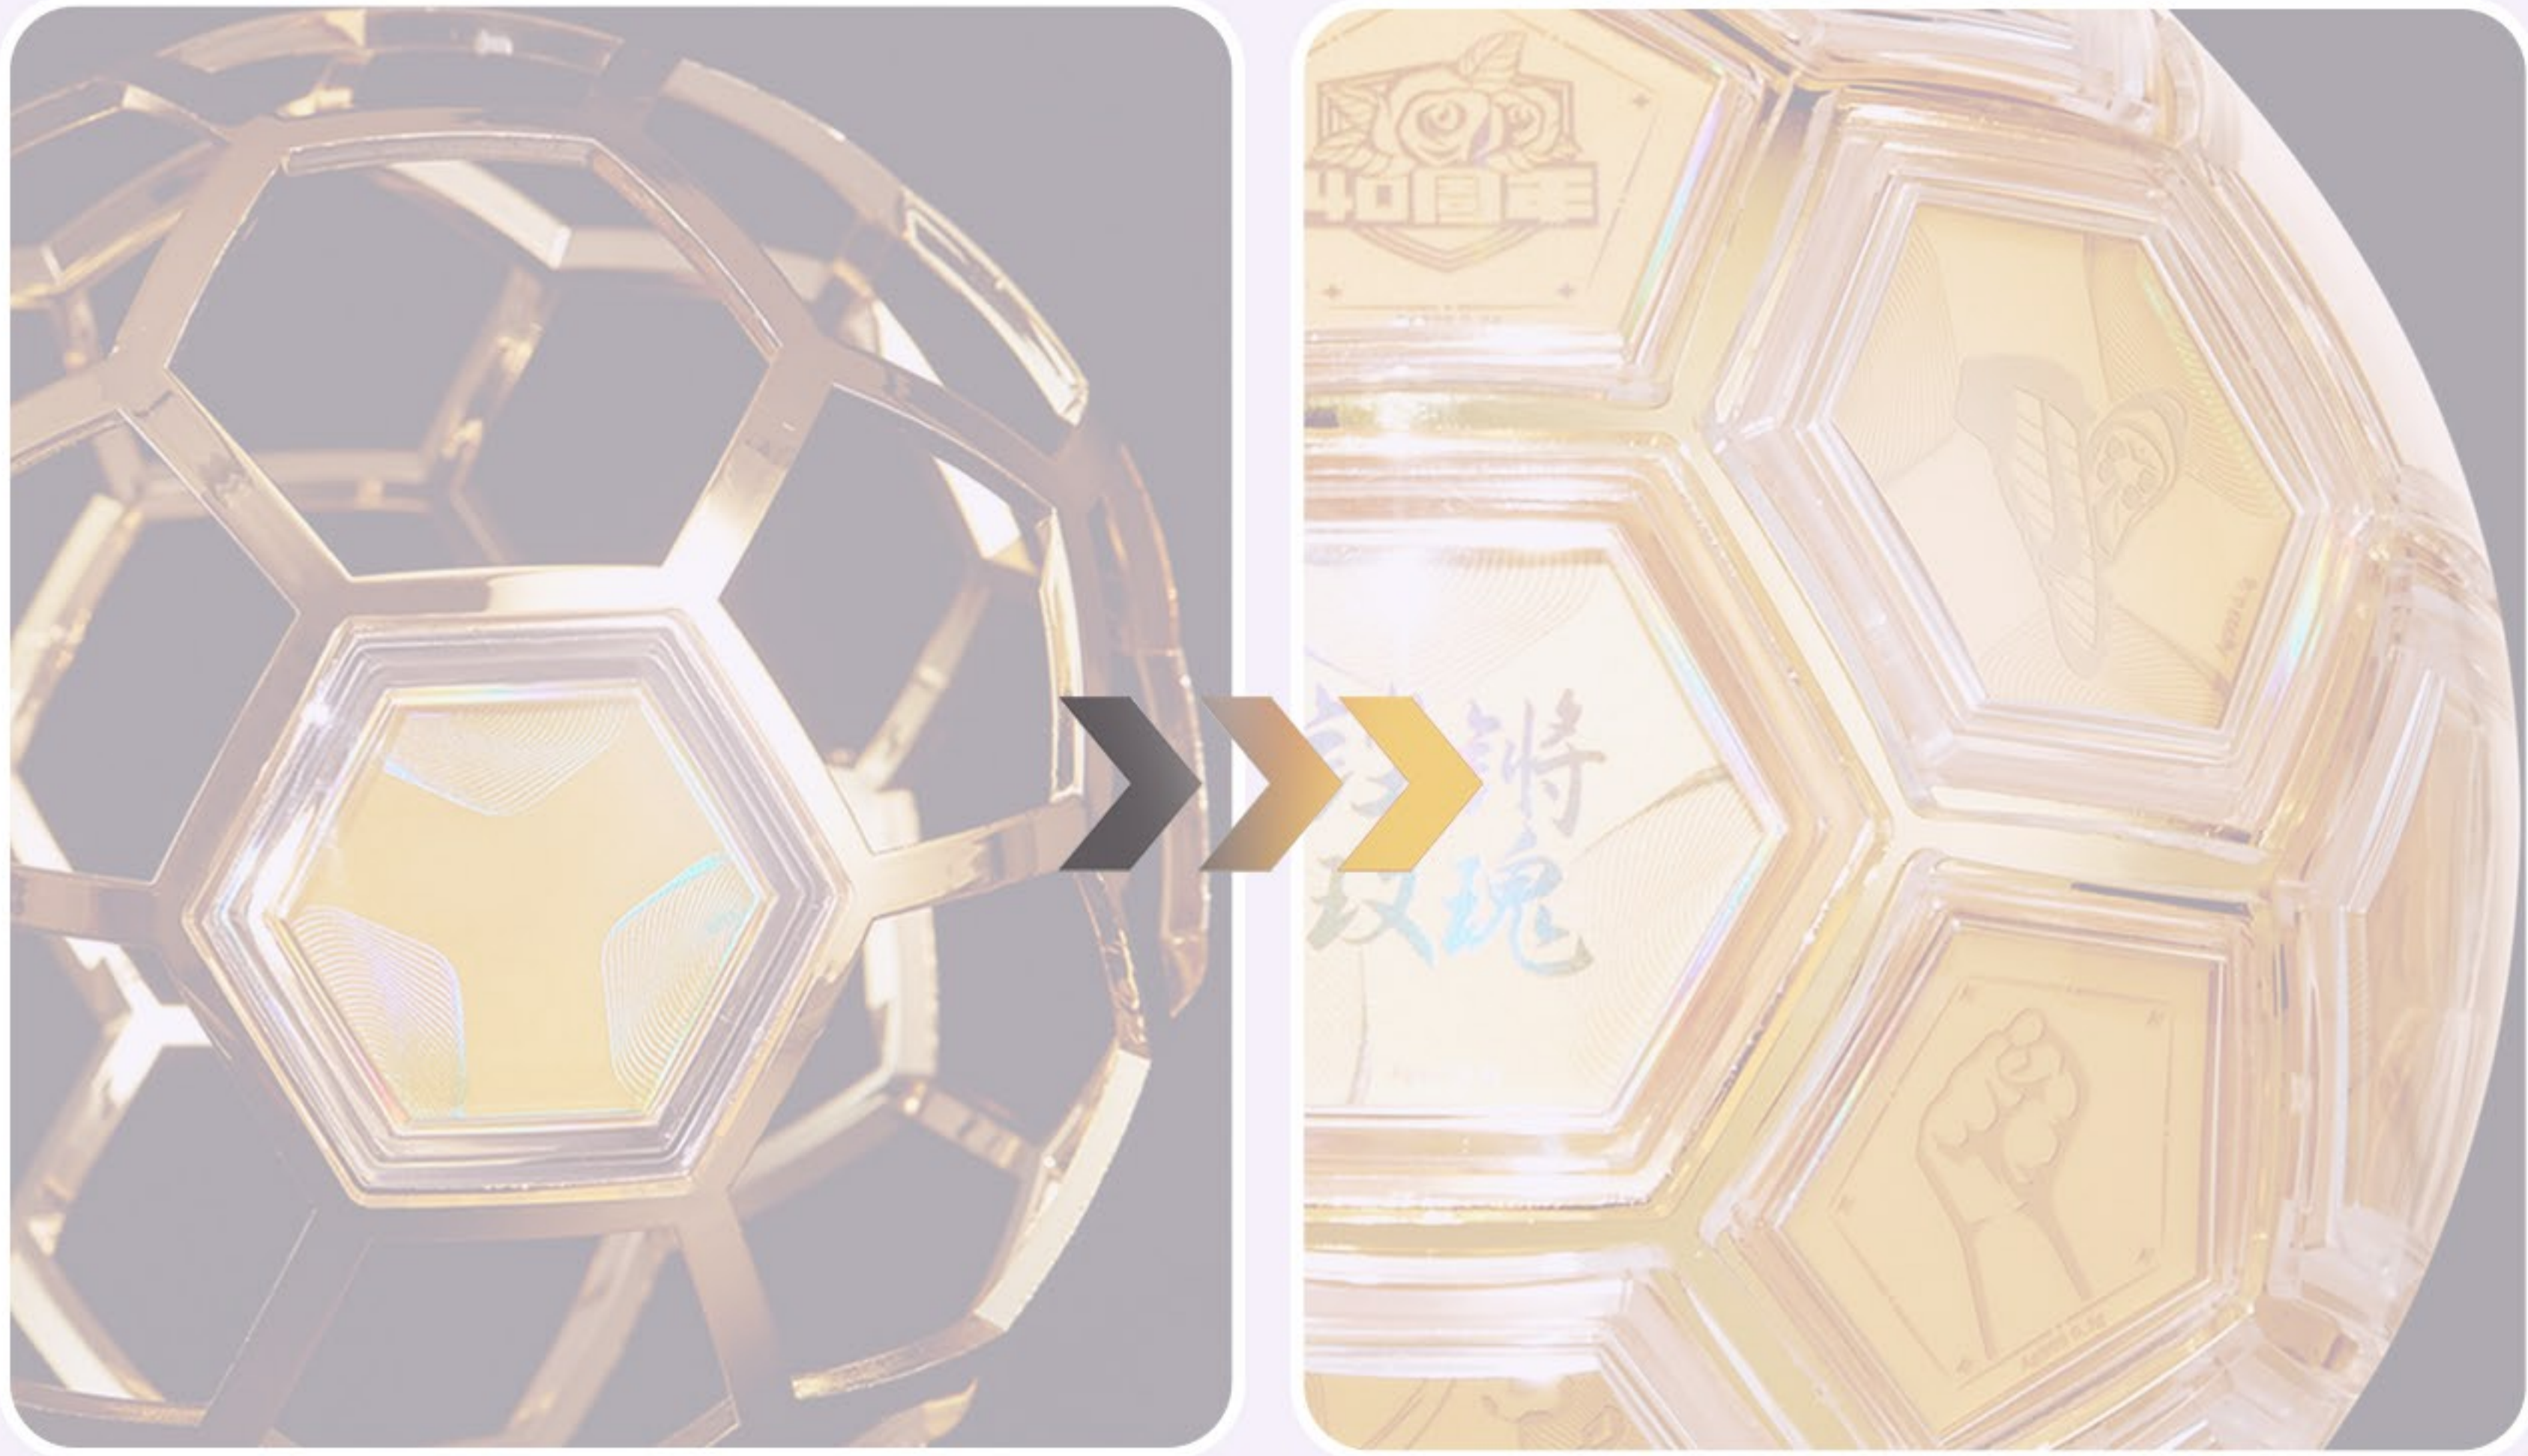

The design of the Lucky Gold Ball and Lucky Pink Ball draws inspiration from the bold spirit of modern women and the resilience symbolized by China's national women's soccer team, the Iron Roses. This piece honors the team's remarkable 40-year journey while reflecting on their historic achievements through exquisite craftsmanship and innovative design, carrying hopes for future triumphs. Every detail is meticulously crafted to embody the strength and character of women today, inspiring the owner to pursue dreams with courage and determination. This commemorative masterpiece seamlessly merges cultural heritage with contemporary values, showcasing a unique allure and profound significance.

The Elegantly Crafted Lucky Ball

This commemorative ball is composed of 32 emblem components, including 20 hexagonal and 12 pentagonal emblems. Each medallion is encased in a high-transparency acrylic cover, with iridescent craftsmanship and precision sealing techniques ensuring a flawless fit within the handcrafted, structurally stable spherical frame. The Lucky Ball' s frame features a three-dimensional interlocking structure, meticulously hand-polished to ensure a seamless and tightly integrated design. Additionally, a specially engineered opening in the spherical frame allows users to easily place personal items, such as wish notes, inside whenever desired.

Vibrant Brilliance with Artistic Expression

This product utilizes an innovative iridescent coating technique, breaking away from the limitations of traditional silver tones to deliver vibrant, high-saturation colors and a dazzling shine. Its relief lines are smooth and refined, with intricately carved motifs that exude delicate beauty. The seamless, one-piece design integrates either a radiant gold or vibrant pink framework, beautifully complemented by a jade-like surface finish. This substantial piece radiates a sense of prestige and honor.

Exquisite Craftsmanship with an Elegant Touch

The base is crafted with a UV high-gloss lacquer finish, available in black and pure white options. This contrast with the sphere enhances the overall design, giving it an elegant, jade-like luster. The sphere features ultrasonic sealing technology, a detail that reflects a commitment to exceptional quality. Additionally, the product employs 5-axis high-precision engraving technology and uses eco-friendly ABS polymer material, ensuring structural stability while highlighting its environmental attributes.
